

ACCIDENTAL?

The jury returned a verdict of accidental death on the man who fell from the window ledge on which he had fallen asleep. But the death was really due to carelessness which made the accident possible.

There are a great many lives suddenly terminated as a result of carelessness, although the medical certificate may read "heart failure."

When a man takes chances with his stomach and neglects the liver, cures himself with blood-purifiers, he is the warning symptoms of disease, he is careless in inviting calamity.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, which makes strength. It stimulates the liver, cures biliousness and removes blood impurities from the blood.

"I had been troubled with a pain in lower part of my stomach for three or four weeks. I thought it would kill me in time," writes Mr. Aaron Van Dusen, of (Kalamazoo, Mich.), "but I had a high weight hanging on me and got so fat that I had to make machines. I used stomach bitters for a time, but it did not do good so I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for advice. He told me to take his medicine. I followed his directions and used two bottles of his medicine and was cured. I had a torpid liver which was troubling me instead of helping me. I thought, so Dr. Pierce said, I have pleasure in living now; have gained in weight and am able to do my work."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They do not hurt the pill habit.

Like sea sickness, everybody laughs at it but those who have it. When cupid lets slip a sure enough shaft it goes through a fellow's heart like a Kansas cyclone thro' a colored camp-meeting, and all the powers of hades can never head it off. Love is the most sacred word ever framed by ecclesiastical lips. It's the law of life the harmony of heaven, the breadth of which the universe was born, the divine essence incarnate of the ever living God. But love is like all other sweet things unless you get the very best brand, it sours awful quick—Brann.

MEAT & MALT

There's Life and Strength in Every Drop. A scientific combination of the essential constituents of PRIME BEEF and PURE OLD MALT.

Louisville, Ky., January 25, 1903.

MEAT & MALT CO., Louisville, Ky.

Customers—Having examined your Meat and Malt preparation, and being thoroughly acquainted with its composition and mode of manufacture, I can state that it is an efficient tonic and blood tonic. It cures the appetite and builds up the system. It is especially beneficial in nervous prostration and all diseases attended with debility. Yours truly,

L. D. KASTENBINE, M. D., Louisville College of Pharmacy.

MEAT & MALT CO., Louisville, Ky.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Fort Worth, Texas.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Fort Worth, Texas.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Fort Worth, Texas.

OSZMANIS ORIENTAL SEXUAL PILLS

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Fort Worth, Texas.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Fort Worth, Texas.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Fort Worth, Texas.

DAVISS COUNTY BANK & TRUST CO.

OWENSBORO, KY.

Cash Capital, $50,000

Stockholders' Liability, $50,000

Guarantee Fund for Customers, $100,000

Deposits received subject to check. Loans made on deposit. Interest paid on time deposits. A PER CENT for 12 months; 5 or 6 per cent for shorter periods. Interest begins immediately. Call or write for further particulars.

T. S. ANDERSON, President.

Now is the time to subscribe for The Hartford Republican.

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT FOR CONSTIPATION

Constipation is nothing more than a clogging of the bowels and nothing less than vital stagnation or death if not relieved. If every constipated sufferer could realize that he is allowing poisonous filth to remain in his system, he would soon get relief. Constipation invites all kind of contagion. Headaches, biliousness, colds and many other ailments disappear when constipated bowels are relieved. The Ford's Black-Draught thoroughly cleans out the bowels in an easy and natural manner without the purging of calomel or other violent cathartics.

Be sure that you get the original Ford's Black-Draught, made by The Chattanooga Medicine Co. Sold by all druggists in 25 cent and $1.00 packages.

Morgan, Ark., May 25, 1901.

I cannot recommend The Ford's Black-Draught too highly. I used it for years all the time and have used it for the last ten years. I never saw any other laxative. I think I could never be able to stop it without the assistance of constipated bowels troubled with constipation. Your medicine is all that I have to say.

C. B. McFARLAND.

PRESIDENT HAS A DEN

Description of Mr. Roosevelt's Private Office and Retiring Room.

I got a glimpse of the President's "den" the other day, and it isn't at all like the fantastic descriptions I have read about it in the newspapers. In the readjustment of affairs at the White House he selected for a private office and retiring room, where he could shut himself off and be alone and think and read and write without interruption, the old cabinet chamber which was used for the meetings of the President's advisers from Lincoln's time until last fall. He has had it fitted like a library or an office. The beautiful carved oak desk presented to President Hayes by Queen Victoria stands near the window with a supply of stationary and a number of books of reference. This desk is made of the timbers of one of the vessels of Sir John Franklin's Arctic expedition which was rescued by the United States.

Hanging over the fireplace is the portrait of George Washington which formerly hung in the corridor on the first floor of the White House. On the opposite side is the original sketch of Remington's picture of the Rough Riders charging up San Juan Hill. Several portraits of personal friends have been hung where the President can see their faces, and around the wall are cases filled with his favorite books. The view from the window, however, is more beautiful than any artificial embellishment. As he sits at his desk he commands one of the most beautiful vistas in the world—a long sweep of the Potomac with the Washington monument in the foreground and the mansion at Arlington far in the distance on the right.

He has a map of the United States and Europe hanging back of the door, where they hang in McKinley's time. A bust of Gen. Grant occupies one end of the mantle, and upon the top of the revolving bookcase is the bronze figure of an Indian warrior. The President cannot spend as much time in this room as he would like. The continual demands upon his time keep him in the new office, but he often runs away and seeks the seclusion of the den when he has a speech to prepare or some other work that requires close application and freedom from interruptions. Here also he used to indulge in fencing with single sticks with Gen. Leonard Wood, and that probably started the story which you have seen in the newspapers that he had turned the historic cabinet chamber into gymnasium. He will have to find some body else to fence with now that Gen. Wood has gone to the Philippines.

That he takes more or less exercise in this room is evident from the fact that a pair of dumb-bells are lying upon the hearth. Often when he comes in he picks them up and shoves them into the air a few times just to get his blood in circulation before he sits down to work, but he never thought of making a gymnasium of the room.—W. E. Curtis' Letter in Lexington Leader.

LOVE.

But speaking of love, were any of you ever in love? I'm talking about the sure-enough, old-fashioned complaint that makes a man miss meals and lose sleep, write spring poetry and mistake his appetite for plug tobacco; not the new fangled varietal that yields to matrimonial treatment. Matches, we are told, are made in heaven; and I think it likely, for Satan himself is said to have originated there. I'll tell you how matches are usually made here: By some horrible accident John Henry and Susan Jane become acquainted. They have no more affinity than a practical politician and pure spring water; but they dance and flirt, fool around the front gate in the dark of the moon, sigh and talk nonsense. John Henry begins to take things for his breath and Sarah Jane for her complexion. The young gossings get wanted to each other, and the first thing you know they're tied up until death or divorce doth them part. And had they missed each other altogether they would have been just as well and perhaps better contented with other mates and made as enthusiastic a failure of married life. Most people marry without really knowing whether they're in love or not—mistake the gregarious habit for the mystic fire of Hymen's torch, the pangs of a bad digestion for the barbed arrow form the love God's bow. But when a couple's really got what ailed Romeo and Juliet they're in no more doubt about it than was the man after he sat down on the circular saw to see if it was running and found it the sole proprietor of a South American revolution. They don't have to send their feelings to a chemist for analysis and classification nor take an invoice of their affections to see if any has got away. Love is really a very serious thing.

THE GRAVE IN THE CELLAR

Tom O'Neill was a fool and a miser. He had married Jenny Cone, the girl of his choice, before he had put by any ready money and since he could not always get work was not prosperous. There was an old saying, "A fool for luck and a poor man for children," and Tom certainly illustrated the last part of the adage.

One night after Tom and his family had gone to bed there came a rap at his door. On opening it he saw a man who looked more like a rag picker than anything else standing at the door. He asked Tom if he was not a miser. When Tom replied that he was the man asked him if he would do a job of work for him that night. Since there was nothing in the house for breakfast and the stranger agreed to pay him $2 if he would work until morning, Tom agreed, whereupon, taking his tools, he went out with the man, who after blindfolding him led him about in a tortuous course and into a small cellar, where he removed the bandage. The place was lighted by a candle.

"I want you to take up a portion of the cement floor and dig a grave," said the man.

Tom set to work, took up an oblong portion of the floor and dug a grave 6 feet by 2. Then the rag picker mounted a flight of steps, opened a door and showed the end of a pine coffin shaped box through the opening. Tom took hold, and the two carried the box and lowered it into the grave.

A barrel of cement stood ready, with everything needed for mixing it. Tom was directed to lay the floor, smoothing it so that when the cement had become old no one would notice that the floor had been disturbed. Tom, who was suspicious that a murder had been committed, looked about him to discover something by which he might identify the cellar, though there was no probability of his ever coming into it again. There was absolutely nothing unusual in the place, and all Tom could do when the rag picker's back was turned was to make a cross on the newly laid cement with the sharp blade of his knife. When the job was finished the rag picker blindfolded Tom again and led him out of the cellar. After taking him over a winding course finally the rag picker said: "I am going to leave you now. Count 500, and when you have come to take off the bandage. If you remove it before you have made the count you will be a dead man. You will find on the ground something worth much more to you than the sum I agreed to pay."

Tom counted 500, then, after considerable delay, removed his bandage. On the ground before him was a piece of paper on which was written in pencil: "Always get at least a portion of your pay before doing work."

Ten years passed. Tom remembered the rag picker's advice and would have profited by it, but there was no little work to do that he was obliged to take his chances for pay. He was turned out of his house after another year for a plaything. The rag picker, on a lonely road. It was an autumn day when the family went there, and Jenny sat down on a stump and began to cry.

"Never mind, dear girl," said Tom cheerfully. "I shall be usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

THE GRAVE IN THE CELLAR

Tom O'Neill was a fool and a miser. He had married Jenny Cone, the girl of his choice, before he had put by any ready money and since he could not always get work was not prosperous. There was an old saying, "A fool for luck and a poor man for children," and Tom certainly illustrated the last part of the adage.

One night after Tom and his family had gone to bed there came a rap at his door. On opening it he saw a man who looked more like a rag picker than anything else standing at the door. He asked Tom if he was not a miser. When Tom replied that he was the man asked him if he would do a job of work for him that night. Since there was nothing in the house for breakfast and the stranger agreed to pay him $2 if he would work until morning, Tom agreed, whereupon, taking his tools, he went out with the man, who after blindfolding him led him about in a tortuous course and into a small cellar, where he removed the bandage. The place was lighted by a candle.

"I want you to take up a portion of the cement floor and dig a grave," said the man.

Tom set to work, took up an oblong portion of the floor and dug a grave 6 feet by 2. Then the rag picker mounted a flight of steps, opened a door and showed the end of a pine coffin shaped box through the opening. Tom took hold, and the two carried the box and lowered it into the grave.

A barrel of cement stood ready, with everything needed for mixing it. Tom was directed to lay the floor, smoothing it so that when the cement had become old no one would notice that the floor had been disturbed. Tom, who was suspicious that a murder had been committed, looked about him to discover something by which he might identify the cellar, though there was no probability of his ever coming into it again. There was absolutely nothing unusual in the place, and all Tom could do when the rag picker's back was turned was to make a cross on the newly laid cement with the sharp blade of his knife. When the job was finished the rag picker blindfolded Tom again and led him out of the cellar. After taking him over a winding course finally the rag picker said: "I am going to leave you now. Count 500, and when you have come to take off the bandage. If you remove it before you have made the count you will be a dead man. You will find on the ground something worth much more to you than the sum I agreed to pay."

Tom counted 500, then, after considerable delay, removed his bandage. On the ground before him was a piece of paper on which was written in pencil: "Always get at least a portion of your pay before doing work."

Ten years passed. Tom remembered the rag picker's advice and would have profited by it, but there was no little work to do that he was obliged to take his chances for pay. He was turned out of his house after another year for a plaything. The rag picker, on a lonely road. It was an autumn day when the family went there, and Jenny sat down on a stump and began to cry.

"Never mind, dear girl," said Tom cheerfully. "I shall be usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

THE GRAVE IN THE CELLAR

Tom O'Neill was a fool and a miser. He had married Jenny Cone, the girl of his choice, before he had put by any ready money and since he could not always get work was not prosperous. There was an old saying, "A fool for luck and a poor man for children," and Tom certainly illustrated the last part of the adage.

One night after Tom and his family had gone to bed there came a rap at his door. On opening it he saw a man who looked more like a rag picker than anything else standing at the door. He asked Tom if he was not a miser. When Tom replied that he was the man asked him if he would do a job of work for him that night. Since there was nothing in the house for breakfast and the stranger agreed to pay him $2 if he would work until morning, Tom agreed, whereupon, taking his tools, he went out with the man, who after blindfolding him led him about in a tortuous course and into a small cellar, where he removed the bandage. The place was lighted by a candle.

"I want you to take up a portion of the cement floor and dig a grave," said the man.

Tom set to work, took up an oblong portion of the floor and dug a grave 6 feet by 2. Then the rag picker mounted a flight of steps, opened a door and showed the end of a pine coffin shaped box through the opening. Tom took hold, and the two carried the box and lowered it into the grave.

A barrel of cement stood ready, with everything needed for mixing it. Tom was directed to lay the floor, smoothing it so that when the cement had become old no one would notice that the floor had been disturbed. Tom, who was suspicious that a murder had been committed, looked about him to discover something by which he might identify the cellar, though there was no probability of his ever coming into it again. There was absolutely nothing unusual in the place, and all Tom could do when the rag picker's back was turned was to make a cross on the newly laid cement with the sharp blade of his knife. When the job was finished the rag picker blindfolded Tom again and led him out of the cellar. After taking him over a winding course finally the rag picker said: "I am going to leave you now. Count 500, and when you have come to take off the bandage. If you remove it before you have made the count you will be a dead man. You will find on the ground something worth much more to you than the sum I agreed to pay."

Tom counted 500, then, after considerable delay, removed his bandage. On the ground before him was a piece of paper on which was written in pencil: "Always get at least a portion of your pay before doing work."

Ten years passed. Tom remembered the rag picker's advice and would have profited by it, but there was no little work to do that he was obliged to take his chances for pay. He was turned out of his house after another year for a plaything. The rag picker, on a lonely road. It was an autumn day when the family went there, and Jenny sat down on a stump and began to cry.

"Never mind, dear girl," said Tom cheerfully. "I shall be usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

Jenny was depressed anew at having to bury a corpse and was usually cheerful under misfortune. It's darkest before day. Maybe something will turn up." "Or down," added the wife, with a fresh burst of tears.

Tom, who was never idle when there was work to do, set about gathering the fallen wood lying about, which he carried into the cellar. After carrying in the first load he came out with a singular expression on his face and asked his wife for a small hand magnifying glass that his youngest boy had used for a plaything. The rag picker gave him, and he returned to the cellar. Presently he went upstairs and told his wife that they were in the house where he had helped make a burial.

WOMAN

Who Murdered Her Husband Released After 27 Years' Imprisonment.

New York, June 22.—After twenty-seven years behind prison bars, Mrs. Emma Whipple is free, through the pardon granted her a few days ago by Gov. Otis. When the woman was escorted from the Matteawan Hospital for the Insane to the railway station at Newburg she appeared completely dazed at the strange sights.

Mrs. Whipple was sentenced to life imprisonment for poisoning her husband. She entered Sing Sing a pretty girl of eighteen and emerged to liberty a gray-haired woman of forty-five. Fifteen months ago she was found to be losing her reason, and was taken to the asylum from which she has just been liberated. Apparently she will soon entirely recover.

Mrs. Whipple will live with the sister of her husband. She poisoned the latter as the outcome of a love affair. The young man who was tried as her accomplice also was sentenced to life, but died in prison many years ago.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by all druggists.

CHIVINGTON, COLO.

June 15.—Kind editor, as I see no news from these parts, I thought I would write you a few lines if I will just close that old waste basket while I write.

Well, it has been rather windy for the past two months and little rain until the 4th of June. It began raining and rained six days, so we are flush in regard to moisture, but not so damp as our cousins in Kansas. The Arkansas River is on a tear, but, except a few bridges washed out no material damage was done.

I wonder what has become of our Niagara friend, I suppose he is still running from that Mauser bullet that hit his funny bone in Manila. I shouldn't wonder if the stars do look different to him. I suppose he didn't tarry long at Niagara. Oh, yes, I see him now, hugging the north pole peeping around the north star toward the Philippines, now he is watching a tagal warrior up the pole.

Well, I have no marriages, births, deaths, suicides or water spouts to report this week. On account of hard winter and late spring there will not be more than a half crop of calves and lambs this year.

Well, if this don't get into the basket I will eat a prairie dog the 4th of July sure.

J. T. WELLER.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY.

To the Sheriff of Ohio County, Greeting: We command you that you expose to sale the estate of Gus St. Claire to-wit: One house and parcel of land in the town of Dundee, Ohio county, Ky., as the property of Gus St. Claire and bounded as follows: On the East by the Hartford and Hardinsburg road; on the North by Hartford and Hardinsburg road; on the West by Rough river; on the South by town lot of Clarence Arment, which, according to our commands, you have taken into your hands, and which still remains in your hands unsold, as you have certified to the Judge of our Grayson Circuit Court, to satisfy James Gray, the sum of ($65.00) Sixty-five Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent, per annum, from the 30th day of September, 1901, until paid. Also the sum of $15.95 which is the same Court, was adjudged to him for his costs in that behalf expended, whereof he hath recovered execution against the said St. Claire by virtue of a judgment of the Grayson Circuit Court, and that you have the said sum of money before the Judge of our said Court, on the 1st day of August, next, to satisfy the said Plaintiff the debt, interest and costs aforesaid, and have then and there this writ.

Given under my hand as Clerk of said Court, this 8th day of June, 1903.

JESS T. GOSWELL, Clerk.

By ISAAC T. LAYMAN, D. C.

Pursuant to the above order I will offer for sale the above described property at the Court House door in Hartford, Ohio county, Ky., on Monday, the 6th day of July, 1903, between the hours of one o'clock p. m. and three o'clock p. m. to the highest and best bidder.

TERMS OF SALE—Three months with bond and approved security.

CAL P. KROWN, S. O. C.

By R. L. BOYD, D. S.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Beck's Signature

Beck's Signature

WOMAN

Who Murdered Her Husband Released After 27 Years' Imprisonment.

New York, June 22.—After twenty-seven years behind prison bars, Mrs. Emma Whipple is free, through the pardon granted her a few days ago by Gov. Otis. When the woman was escorted from the Matteawan Hospital for the Insane to the railway station at Newburg she appeared completely dazed at the strange sights.

Mrs. Whipple was sentenced to life imprisonment for poisoning her husband. She entered Sing Sing a pretty girl of eighteen and emerged to liberty a gray-haired woman of forty-five. Fifteen months ago she was found to be losing her reason, and was taken to the asylum from which she has just been liberated. Apparently she will soon entirely recover.

Mrs. Whipple will live with the sister of her husband. She poisoned the latter as the outcome of a love affair. The young man who was tried as her accomplice also was sentenced to life, but died in prison many years ago.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

The uniform success of this remedy has made it the most popular preparation in use for bowel complaints. It is everywhere recognized as the one remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children and is undoubtedly the means of saving the lives of a great many children each year. For sale by all druggists.

CHIVINGTON, COLO.

June 15.—Kind editor, as I see no news from these parts, I thought I would write you a few lines if I will just close that old waste basket while I write.

Well, it has been rather windy for the past two months and little rain until the 4th of June. It began raining and rained six days, so we are flush in regard to moisture, but not so damp as our cousins in Kansas. The Arkansas River is on a tear, but, except a few bridges washed out no material damage was done.

I wonder what has become of our Niagara friend, I suppose he is still running from that Mauser bullet that hit his funny bone in Manila. I shouldn't wonder if the stars do look different to him. I suppose he didn't tarry long at Niagara. Oh, yes, I see him now, hugging the north pole peeping around the north star toward the Philippines, now he is watching a tagal warrior up the pole.

Well, I have no marriages, births, deaths, suicides or water spouts to report this week. On account of hard winter and late spring there will not be more than a half crop of calves and lambs this year.

Well, if this don't get into the basket I will eat a prairie dog the 4th of July sure.

J. T. WELLER.

THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY.

To the Sheriff of Ohio County, Greeting: We command you that you expose to sale the estate of Gus St. Claire to-wit: One house and parcel of land in the town of Dundee, Ohio county, Ky., as the property of Gus St. Claire and bounded as follows: On the East by the Hartford and Hardinsburg road; on the North by Hartford and Hardinsburg road; on the West by Rough river; on the South by town lot of Clarence Arment, which, according to our commands, you have taken into your hands, and which still remains in your hands unsold, as you have certified to the Judge of our Grayson Circuit Court, to satisfy James Gray, the sum of ($65.00) Sixty-five Dollars, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent, per annum, from the 30th day of September, 1901, until paid. Also the sum of $15.95 which is the same Court, was adjudged to him for his costs in that behalf expended, whereof he hath recovered execution against the said St. Claire by virtue of a judgment of the Grayson Circuit Court, and that you have the said sum of money before the Judge of our said Court, on the 1st day of August, next, to satisfy the said Plaintiff the debt, interest and costs aforesaid, and have then and there this writ.

Given under my hand as Clerk of said Court, this 8th day of June, 1903.

JESS T. GOSWELL, Clerk.

By ISAAC T. LAYMAN, D. C.

Pursuant to the above order I will offer for sale the above described property at the Court House door in Hartford, Ohio county, Ky., on Monday, the 6th day of July, 1903, between the hours of one o'clock p. m. and three o'clock p. m. to the highest and best bidder.

TERMS OF SALE—Three months with bond and approved security.

CAL P. KROWN, S. O. C.

By R. L. BOYD, D. S.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Beck's Signature

Beck's Signature

FOR FREE ADVICE

Every Woman Should Write Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium.

Mrs. Joseph Lacelle, Ottawa, East, Ont. Canada, writes: "Peruna is better by far than any other medicine sold in the Dominion for the troubles peculiar to the sex. I suffered with backache, headache and dragging down pains for over nine months, and nothing relieved me a particle until I took Peruna. A few bottles relieved me of my miserable half-dead, half-alive condition. I am now in good health and have neither ache or pain, nor have I had any for the past year. If every suffering woman would take Peruna they would soon know its value and never be without it."—Mrs. Joseph Lacelle.

Free Home Advice.

In view of the great multitude of women suffering from some form of female disease and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned specialist on female catarrhal diseases, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as make application to him during the summer months without charge.

Those wishing to become patients should address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

ROUGH RIVER INDEPENDENT TELEPHONE COMPANY</

Hartford Republican.

Issued by the Hartford Publishing Company.
(Incorporated.)

TELEPHONES.
Cumberland 33.
Rough River 22.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE,
DR. A. D. PARK,
Rockport, Ky.

FOR CIRCUIT COURT CLERK,
E. G. PARRASS,
Taylor Mines, Ky.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For State Senator.

We are authorized to announce that A. S. BENNETT is a candidate for State Senator from the Seventh Senatorial District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce that S. STEVENS is a candidate for State Senator from the Seventh Senatorial District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce that D. BAKER RHODES is a candidate for State Senator from the Seventh Senatorial District, subject to the action of the Republican party.

INSURANCE agents are out of business in Breathitt county.

CAN'T Happy Hooligan go to the assistance of Chairman Allie Young.

The hung jury in the Jett-White case at Jackson will mean a hung Jett and White at Cynthiana, we trust.

JOHN B. HURST, of Harlan county, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

CAPT. C. C. Calhoun, of $68,000 taxpayers money fame, is in Washington looking after another Spanish-American war claim.

THE Filipinos are said to be awake to the importance and necessity of good roads. Could they not send a few missionaries to Ohio county?

COULD the Republicans do better than to nominate John C. Willis, of Lexington, for Superintendent of Public Instruction? We think not.

How about our railroad? Are the good citizens lending their aid, in a material way, to the enterprise by donating the right-of-way over which the proposed road will run?

THE pugilist, Bob Fitzsimmons, has been knocked out again. Cupid met him face to face and Fittz, if he resisted, was completely overcome. He is engaged to Miss Julia May Griffith.

BOHINSKI COCIANCHIK, of New York, claims to be the rightful heir to the Serbian throne. He should have tackled the victor to his assault upon the alphabet and he would have been O. K.

CHICAGO is going to spend $4,000,000 on her parks this year; Hartford will spend $300 on her streets, making a grand total of $4,000,000.30, spent on internal improvements in the two cities during the year.

We are in receipt of a time-table folder of the Henderson route, which is a real work of art. This route will be a popular way for the people of this part of the State who visit the St. Louis Fair next year.

In an interview, Mr. Cleveland says emphatically he will not be a candidate for President in 1904. Now if some one can successfully interview Bryan, what a silence would come to heal the blows of sound.

If it is anyone's sworn or moral duty to look after the public roads and bridges of the county, we would suggest that they might interest themselves and, perhaps, benefit the traveling public, by spending a few days, looking and doing.

Yes, we remember that Governor Beckham proclaimed it, as it were, from the house top, during his campaign for Governor in 1900: "I will not pardon anyone convicted by a jury of twelve men at a fair trial." Has he kept his promise?

If the assassination business is to become popular in Serbia, it would be a good plan to establish a department of the Serbian Language in the leading Universities, so that the dispatches relating to the slaughter of its rulers may be interpreted.

The distinguished Judge of the Breathitt County Court, who is also a member of Governor Beckham's Democratic State Central Committee, will foot the bill for the luxuries furnished to Curt Jett and Tom White while in jail. The fodder will consist principally of "mountain dew" in unlimited quantities.

This public should not forget that Judge James Hargis, the real bone of the defense in the Jett and White murder trial, is a member of the Democratic State Central Committee and is one of Governor Beckham's political advisers. That Judge Redwine, who presided in the trial of the case, and who transferred the prosecution to Harrison county where the last legal hanging occurred in 1847, is the same Redwine that presided over the famous Music Hall convention.

CURTIS JETT, the alleged assassin of Attorney Marcum, is familiarly known throughout Breathitt county as "Wild Dog." He is young in years, but the record of the Breathitt Circuit Court shows that he is old in achievements. In the brief period between his release from the penitentiary on a pardon from Governor Beckham and the assassination of James E. Marcum, he had been indicted and tried four times for various felonies. Tom White has not made quite as good use of his time as "Wild Dog," as he was charged with and tried for only one murder during the interim between his release on a Gov. Beckham pardon and his complicity in the Marcum tragedy.

Call for County Convention.

WHEREAS, At a regular meeting of the Republican State Central Committee held in the city of Louisville, on May 14, 1903, it was ordered that a State Convention of delegates be held at the Auditorium, in the city of Louisville, on Wednesday, July 15, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates of the Republican party for the state offices to be filled at the election, November, 1903, viz:

Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Treasurer, Auditor, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, Secretary of State, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Clerk of the Court of Appeals. It being further ordered that the delegates to said convention shall be chosen by the people of the several counties of the State in Mass Convention assembled at the county seats thereof, on Saturday, July 11, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m.

It is therefore ordered and directed by the Republican Executive Committee of Ohio county, that a Mass Convention be held at the Court House, in Hartford, on Saturday, July 11, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to attend said Convention at Louisville, on Wednesday, July 15, 1903.

This June 16, 1903.

NICHOLAS BARRASS,
Ch'm'n of Ex. Com. Ohio Co.
J. M. DEWEESE, Sec'y.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, ss.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. Frank J. Cheney. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

A. W. Gleason,
Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Who Can Tell?

Don't snub a boy because he wears shabby clothes. When Edison, the inventor of the telephone, first entered Boston, he wore a pair of yellow linen breeches in the depth of winter. Don't snub a boy because his house is plain and unpretending. Abraham Lincoln's early home was a log cabin. Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name.

Don't snub a boy because he chooses a humble trade. The author of "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker.

Don't snub a boy because of his physical disability. Milton was blind.

Don't snub a boy because of dullness in his lessons. Hogarth, the celebrated painter and engraver, was a stupid boy at his books.

Don't snub a boy because he stutters. Demosthenes, the greatest orator of Greece, overcame a harsh and stammering voice.

Don't snub anyone. Because some day he may far outstrip you in the race of life.—Selected.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

SELECT. KY.

June 23.—People are about through harvesting wheat in this community.

Miss Ella Pirtle, Cromwell, visited relatives and friends in our midst last week.

Mr. Willie Coleman, Owensboro, visited his sister, Mrs. Estelle Ar buckle, last week.

Misses Verda Stewart and Dale Norman and Mr. Guy Ranney visited the family of G. G. Arbuckle Sunday.

Miss Electra Austin, Beaver Dam, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Pearl Arbuckle.

The singing school at Oak Grove, under the management of A. H. Stewart, seems to be quite a success.

Mr. B. M. Stewart, who has been quite ill of rheumatism, is able to be out again.

A good number of our people are expected to attend the St. John's celebration at Morgantown next Wednesday and Saturday nights. The band makes excellent music.

POLITICAL PARDONS

IN MONROE

Another Flagrant Case of Partisan Injustice.

Three Democrats Assail and Kill an Active Republican.

Judge Bradburn, a Beckham Ap-pointee, Presented Peti-tion to the Gov-ernor.

Frankfort, June 23.—While the eyes of the State are fixed upon the complications of murder and politics in Breathitt county, and Gov. Beckham sits on the safety valve of his box of pardons to the Hargis faction, unwilling to let the public know the facts, there are other localities where he has issued pardons to political murderers. In fact, the Governor's pardon record is so voluminous that when he sits on part of it some of the remainder is exposed, like a hen trying to act on too many eggs.

Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Treasurer, Auditor, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics, Secretary of State, Attorney General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Clerk of the Court of Appeals. It being further ordered that the delegates to said convention shall be chosen by the people of the several counties of the State in Mass Convention assembled at the county seats thereof, on Saturday, July 11, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m.

It is therefore ordered and directed by the Republican Executive Committee of Ohio county, that a Mass Convention be held at the Court House, in Hartford, on Saturday, July 11, 1903, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to attend said Convention at Louisville, on Wednesday, July 15, 1903.

This June 16, 1903.

NICHOLAS BARRASS,
Ch'm'n of Ex. Com. Ohio Co.
J. M. DEWEESE, Sec'y.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, ss.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. Frank J. Cheney. Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1886.

A. W. Gleason,
Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Who Can Tell?

Don't snub a boy because he wears shabby clothes. When Edison, the inventor of the telephone, first entered Boston, he wore a pair of yellow linen breeches in the depth of winter. Don't snub a boy because his house is plain and unpretending. Abraham Lincoln's early home was a log cabin. Don't snub a boy because of the ignorance of his parents. Shakespeare, the world's poet, was the son of a man who was unable to write his own name.

Don't snub a boy because he chooses a humble trade. The author of "Pilgrim's Progress" was a tinker.

Don't snub a boy because of his physical disability. Milton was blind.

Don't snub a boy because of dullness in his lessons. Hogarth, the celebrated painter and engraver, was a stupid boy at his books.

Don't snub a boy because he stutters. Demosthenes, the greatest orator of Greece, overcame a harsh and stammering voice.

Don't snub anyone. Because some day he may far outstrip you in the race of life.—Selected.

CASTORIA.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

SELECT. KY.

June 23.—People are about through harvesting wheat in this community.

Miss Ella Pirtle, Cromwell, visited relatives and friends in our midst last week.

Mr. Willie Coleman, Owensboro, visited his sister, Mrs. Estelle Ar buckle, last week.

Misses Verda Stewart and Dale Norman and Mr. Guy Ranney visited the family of G. G. Arbuckle Sunday.

Miss Electra Austin, Beaver Dam, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Pearl Arbuckle.

The singing school at Oak Grove, under the management of A. H. Stewart, seems to be quite a success.

Mr. B. M. Stewart, who has been quite ill of rheumatism, is able to be out again.

A good number of our people are expected to attend the St. John's celebration at Morgantown next Wednesday and Saturday nights. The band makes excellent music.

the near future. He stated to an intimate friend that his business in Cincinnati was strictly personal.

FORDSVILLE, KY.

Everybody seems to be going to the Dundee picnic Saturday.

Miss Lee Montgomery and visitor, Miss Ethel Conniff, of Louisville, spent Saturday and Sunday in Owensboro the guests of Miss Virgie Kennedy.

Mr. C. E. Ford and family are visiting the family of Mr. Willie Ford, at Jackson, Ky.

Mr. Mary Howard and little son, of Rockvale, visited the family of Mr. J. T. Smith, Sr., the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Allen Sargent and children, of Rockport, Ind., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sargent and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Camp.

Misses Daisy Deane and Emma Lou Moorman, of Glendean, spent several days this week with Mrs. Robt. Crider.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Beard and children are visiting Mr. Beard's parents in New Albany, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Adair and daughter, Marian, went to Havesville Friday, returning Saturday.

Mr. James Martin, wife and baby, Christine, left last week for Colorado where Mr. Martin goes for his health.

Miss Anna Smith is the guest of Miss Jennie Beard in New Albany.

Mr. Thatcher Allen, of Owensboro, was the guest of Miss Alma Ford last Saturday.

Miss Ola Gaines and Jack Walker went to Sulphur Springs Sunday.

Mrs. W. W. Camp and Mrs. Sargent went to Irvington Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Howard spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Jarboe, of near Hardinsburg.

Another little son has arrived to make its home at Mr. J. W. Hale's.

Mrs. Bettie Johnson and Mrs. Margaret Smith spent Tuesday with their sister, Mrs. Mary Howard, at Rockvale.

Mrs. Mack Smith and their immediate family gave Mr. Mack Smith a large birthday dinner Sunday. There were fifty-seven present. An elaborate dinner was served and an ideal day spent by all.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Graham, of Narrows, were here Sunday for the Smith birthday celebration.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets which have helped me very much so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach why not take these Tablets and get well? For sale by all druggists.

Those owing me by note or account will please call on or address E. G. Kirby, Narrows, Ky., and settle same within the next 30 days. It is not settled in this time, I will be compelled to sue on all outstanding indebtedness to me. So please heed this notice and save cost.

H. F. BEAN, M. D.

RENDER, KY.

June 25.—Mr. W. H. Stanley has resigned his position as marshal of Render, Mr. L. E. Herrel was appointed in his place.

Philip Roberts and James McIntyre have returned from Linton, Ind.

Mr. George Fox visited his parents in Hopkins county last week.

Mrs. R. E. Chapman is visiting relatives in Owensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Burton have returned to their home in Stanton, Ill., after a few weeks visit with Mrs. Burton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Jahn.

Mrs. J. L. Burton is visiting in Sturgis at this writing.

Mr. George Baker, of Central City, was in this city Saturday on business.

Miss Jessie Dowell is visiting in Habit, Daviess county.

Hon. Alvie S. Bennett, of Buford, was in Render last Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Reid is visiting relatives in Central City.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Westerfield, of Central City, was in this city last week.

Mr. John Bibb, of Sacramento, was here Sunday and Monday.

Misses Fairy Gish and Delarise Willhoite have returned to Sacramento after a week's visit with Mrs. F. E. Harris.

Mr. E. A. Foster, of Central City, was in town yesterday.

Mr. J. S. Spence was in Central City Monday on business.

Messrs. H. J. Farbach and C. L. Tilton, of Paducah, were here yesterday on business.

Mr. W. S. Vick, of Owensboro, was here Monday on business.

Mr. Lem McGavock, of Cloverport, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. Ida Waltrip and Miss Annie

Swain, of Beaver Dam, are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. H. Stanley.

Miss Atta Stroud, of Central City, was the guest of her uncle, Rev. E. F. Rowe, last Sunday.

Misses Myrtle Hines, Cozzie Reid, Mable Maddox and Ethel Deeter of Rockport, and Judson Rowe, of Render, passed through town en route to Beaver Dam Sunday.

Swain, of Beaver Dam, are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. H. Stanley.

Miss Atta Stroud, of Central City, was the guest of her uncle, Rev. E. F. Rowe, last Sunday.

Misses Myrtle Hines, Cozzie Reid, Mable Maddox and Ethel Deeter of Rockport, and Judson Rowe, of Render, passed through town en route to Beaver Dam Sunday.

Chas. Cargal was in Beaver Dam Saturday.

Mrs. Otha Ashby and Miss Verda Ashby were in Rockport Saturday.

There will be a crowd from here attend the entertainment at Rockport Saturday night.

The boys will cross bats with the Ceralvo Boys next Saturday at McHenry.

Sheriff Cal P. Keown attended the Red Men's Lodge last Friday at McHenry.

Dr. H. B. Innis was in Beaver Dam yesterday on business.

Mr. John F. Hocker is visiting in Central City and Beaver this week.

Mr. Simon Jones was in Hartford Sunday.

Notice to Contractors.
I will receive bids for the construction of a new church at No Creek. Bids to be made at once.

DAVID MORELAND,
Ch'm'n Bid Com.
Hartford, Ky., June 25, 1903.

Enjoyable Communion of Masons.
Keystone Royal Arch Chapter No. 100 held special communication in Masonic Hall, Hartford, Ky., Wednesday evening, June 24, at which the following were welcome visitors: Most Excellent Jas. Keely, Excellent Wm. W. Clark, High Priest and Scribe, of Owensboro Chapter No. 42; Companions J. I. Harder, Dr. Barnhill, Camp and C. C. Miller, of Fordsville Chapter No. 142; Companions Everet Taylor, C. W. Taylor, James Thomas and E. N. Taylor, of Beaver Dam Chapter. The Chapter conferred Mark Masters, Post Masters, Most Excellent Masters and August Degree of Royal Arch Mason on class of seven candidates. The visiting Companions rendered valuable assistance in the conferring of the several degrees, for which the local Companions are very grateful. A light lunch was served at 10:45, which all Companions appeared to enjoy.

HANGING RARE IN HARRISON

Jett and White Will be Tried Where Last Death Sentence was Carried out in 1847.

Cynthiana, Ky., June 23.—Judge J. J. Osborne this forenoon gave out the information that he will call a special term of the Harrison Circuit Court for the trial of the Jett-White case to begin Monday, July 27, and at least ten days prior to that time will hold a special term of one day only for the purpose of appointing a special Bailiff to execute the processes from his court for witnesses in Breathitt county. Some suitable Breathitt county man will be appointed by him as special Bailiff.

A detail of militiamen of about twenty-five will probably be asked for by Judge Osborne to guard the jail, especially at night during the term of the trial. The soldiers will be asked for, if at all, to safeguard any possible attempt at rescue. No soldiers will be in evidence at or about the courthouse, as Judge Osborne has repeatedly said that he would not try a man upon any kind of a charge with soldiers present, as the effect could not be but to overawe either the defense or the prosecution.

There has not been a judicial hanging in this county since November, 1847, when David Sheely was hanged upon the charge of murdering his wife, Nancy Sheely. Years after the hanging of Sheely a man named Wilson confessed on his death bed that he had murdered the wife of Sheely while Sheely was insensibly drunk.

Juries in this county have since that time been over-cautious about inflicting the death penalty.

A Rockport, Ky., bride sues for divorce because her husband is not worth as much as he said he was, or as she thought he was. Some girls may marry for protection; this girl married "for revenue only."—Richmond Pantagraph.

Notice.
The third annual celebration of Dundee Lodge, No. 733, F. & A. M., will be held at Sylvana Park, Dundee, Ky., Saturday, June 27, 1903, in honor of St. John's Day with a grand barbecue. E. P. Moore, J. V. Sprinkle and H. C. Acton, Committee. 45-5t

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of

Deboe for Belknap.

Former United States Senator Deboe is in the city. He predicts the nomination of Col. Morris B. Belknap of Louisville, for Governor by the Republicans. This is based largely on his view of the situation in Western Kentucky. He believes Col. Belknap will carry ten out of thirteen counties in the First District, four out of eight in the Second, all in the Third and will break even in the Fourth. Mr. Deboe will be in Louisville several days.—Louisville Herald.

Gray?

"My hair was falling out and turning gray very fast. But your Hair Vigor stopped the falling and restored the natural color."—Mrs. E. Z. Benomne, Cohoes, N. Y.

It's impossible for you not to look old, with the color of seventy years in your hair! Perhaps you are seventy, and you like your gray hair! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. In less than a month your gray hair will have all the dark, rich color of youth.

25c a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. In return give the name of your nearest druggist. Address, J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

BEDA, KY.
Farmers are very busy in this community.

Mr. Walter Parks, Hartford, visited friends here Sunday afternoon.

Misses Alberta and Blanche Greer spent Sunday night with Mrs. Bernice Dodson.

Mr. Ernest Tweddell, Hartford, was the guest of Mr. B. M. Bennett and family Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Moses Shown, Adahburg, has purchased the storehouse and groceries of Mr. Frank Hicks.

Miss — Troglon, of the Washington neighborhood, who has been visiting Misses Oma and Jessie Tichenor, returned home Sunday.

Mr. Thomas Maples and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ambrose Sunday.

Mr. S. R. Bennett went to Hartford Saturday.

Master Commissioner's Sale.

OHIO CIRCUIT COURT, KENTUCKY
A. W. BLACK, Plaintiff,
vs.
A. T. BLACK, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the May term, 1903, in the above case for the purpose of dividing the proceeds, I will offer for sale by Public Auction at the Court House door in Hartford, on Monday, the 6th day of July, 1903, about one o'clock p. m., upon a credit of six months, the following described property, to-wit:

A tract of land in Ohio county, Ky., on Muddy creek, at the mouth of Pigeon Roost creek and adjoining the lands of Jas. P. Stevens and Marion Sandefur and Jno. Oldham on the South side and known as the Bell survey and contains one hundred and fifty acres.

Also a tract of land in the same vicinity and bounded as follows: Beginning at or near two beech trees, a corner on the bank of Pigeon Roost Fork of Muddy creek; thence S. 40 poles to a white oak and beech south of Muddy creek; thence down said creek with its meanders to the mouth of Pigeon Roost Fork; thence with said creek to the beginning, containing eight and three-fourths acres, or sufficient thereof to produce the sum of money ordered to be made. Subject to the homestead and dower right of defendant, Emily Black.

The purchaser will be required to execute bond with approved security immediately after sale.

This, 10th day of June, 1903.
ROWAN HOLBROOK,
Master Commissioner.
HEAVIN & WOODWARD, Att'ys.

Master Commissioner's Sale.

OHIO CIRCUIT COURT, KENTUCKY
ANNIE COOPER, Plaintiff,
vs.
B. C. AUSTIN, AC, Defendant.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the May term, 1903, in the above case in the sum of $187.00, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum from the 3rd day of April, 1902, and costs herein, I will offer for sale by Public Auction at the Court House door in Hartford, on Monday, the 6th day of July, 1903, about one o'clock p. m., upon a credit of six months, the following described property, to-wit:

One house and lot in the town of Beaver Dam, Ky., being designated as lot No. 83, in Tichenor's addition to town of Beaver Dam, Ky., and for further description see record plot of same in County Court Clerk's office, Hartford, Ky., or sufficient thereof to produce the sums of money ordered to be made.

June Specials.

Indications are now that the hot weather is right on us. We have some Special Goods, at prices that will help to keep you cool. So don't worry yourself, but visit us and we will do the rest.

WASH GOODS.

Pretty line Polka Dot Organdies—real value 10c—our June price, 7c.
Sheer line of India Linens—credit houses get 15c—our June price, 10c.
20 styles Figured Dimities—sell readily at 20c—our June price, 15c.

WOOLEN SKIRTINGS.

36-inch wool-filling Henrietta, silk finish—usually sells for 35c—our June price, 25c.
44-inch all-wool black Sharkskin, desirable for skirts—worth 90c—our June price, 75c.
44-inch black Etamine, for skirts or suits—retail readily at $1.00—our June price, 85c.

LADIES' FURNISHINGS.

Taped-neck Vest.....8c
Jap Fans.....5c, 10c, 15c and 25c
Silk Fans.....50c, 75c, $1 and $1.50
Military Hose Supporters.....25c
Newest Style Linen Collar.....10c
Shirt Waist Sets.....25c
New Belts.....25c to 50c
New Turnovers.....25c to 75c

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.

Balbrigan Underwear.....25c
Servants Drawers.....50c
French Webb Suspenders.....25c
Linen Collars.....10c and 15c
New Style Ties.....25c
Best Madras Shirt.....50c
Hose Supporters.....10c

Besides these, we are making special low prices on Bleached and Brown Cotton, Table Linens, Oil Cloths, Crash, Shirtings, Cottonades, Etc., for June. Don't pay other people's debts by buying from credit-selling houses. You will find our stock high in quality and low price. We will sell you more goods for same money and same goods for less money than any house in Ohio county.

The Bargain Center Is: Fair and Co.
THE FAIR DEALERS

Hartford Republican.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26.

Read Davies Co. Bk. & Tr. Co. ad.
Go to Carson Bros. for Seed Irish Potatoes.
Soda Water and Lemonade at City Restaurant.

Summer Belts for the summer girls at Fair & Co's.

Mrs. Jno. B. Foster, who has been very sick, is no better.

The new things in Straw Hats for men are at Fair & Co's.

Nicest Candies and Cakes in Hartford at City Restaurant.

Apples, Oranges, Lemons and Bananas at City Restaurant.

Bargains in Ladies' Strap Slippers and Oxford at Fair & Co's.

The R. & G. Corsets are better than ever—a new lot at Fair & Co's.

My! My! what delicious Ice Cream and Sherbet at City Restaurant!

We have suits to suit you at prices to suit you. CARSON & CO.

New Laces and Embroideries for Shirt Waists, etc., at Fair & Co's.

Why don't you bring us some Fry-ing Chickens? CARSON & CO.

We have lots of W. L. Douglas Ox-fords. Try a pair. CARSON & CO.

City Restaurant has the finest canned and bottled goods in Hartford.

If you have either old or new feather for sale, come to see Carson & Co.

Cream Cheese, Brick Cheese, Sau-sage and Crackers at City Restaurant.

Cut prices in Fair & Co's Millinery are making them move—better come early.

Come to see me in the building for-merly occupied by J. W. Ford's feed store. SAM BACH.

McCall Patterns at Fair & Co's—none better—none higher than 10c and 15c.

Sharkskin—the new Skirting in black—44 inches wide for 75c, at Fair & Co's.

SCOTT'S EMULSION won't make a hump back straight, neither will it make a short leg long, but it feeds soft bone and heals diseased bone and is among the few genuine means of recovery in rickets and bone consumption.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Send for free sample.

409-415 Pearl Street.

goc. and $1.00 all druggists.

Hump Back

SCOTT'S EMULSION won't make a hump back straight, neither will it make a short leg long, but it feeds soft bone and heals diseased bone and is among the few genuine means of recovery in rickets and bone consumption.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, New York.

Send for free sample.

409-415 Pearl Street.

goc. and $1.00 all druggists.

Notice to Subscribers.

Dear friends we are very much in need of your subscription account if you be one of those who are behind. You can tell by looking at the label on your paper, and won't you call and settle if you be one.

If you are hard to fit, try a pair of W. L. Douglas Shoes.

CARSON & CO.

Mr. Mc. Fair has moved his family to McHenry, where he has a position in the McHenry Coal Company's Store.

Ice Cream, Ices, Phosphates, Coco Cola and Dr. Pepper and all kinds of cool drinks at Z. Wayne Griffin's drug store.

Dr. D. W. King, Osteopath, is at W. G. Hardwick's. Call, if needing treatment. Consultation and Examination free. 411f

Prof. Truman Woodward, who has been engaged in teaching at Princeton University, will visit friends and relatives in Hartford soon.

Mr. E. L. Bullington has embellished and beautified his barber shop until it presents the appearance of first-class tonsorial parlor in the city.

Mr. Thos. L. Allen, who lives about four miles north-east of town and one of the oldest citizens in the county, is quite ill of troubles incident to old age.

Anyone wanting a good all-around buggy, will do well to call on Barnard & Iler, Hartford, Ky. For further information, call at Barnard's stable or Iler's saddle shop. 4975

Three of Buford's enterprising farmers delivered one hundred head of hogs to Mr. Ben Gray, of Beaver Dam, last Tuesday that brought them the neat sum of $1030.50.

Circuit Court Clerk S. A. Anderson has scarlet fever and has been confined to his room several days. He is improving and will be able to assume his duties within a short while.

We sold a lady yesterday a bundle of Pound Peral at 65c. She says she made one wrapper and four shirt-waists and had enough goods left to make a half dozen comforts. Why not try a bundle? CARSON & CO.

We are in receipt of catalogue and programme of the Seven Hills Chautauque, Owensboro, for the coming August entertainment, which begins Thursday, August 6th and continues until August 20th. We are also tendered a complimentary ticket.

Prof. E. W. Patterson and Miss Cora Petty were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, near Fordsville, Wednesday. Only a few intimates friends and relatives were present. They returned to Hartford yesterday afternoon, where they will make their future home.

The Kentucky State Bar Association meets at Owensboro, July 2 and 3. We understand that the local bar is making great preparations for the association and a grand time is expected. Those who will likely attend from this place are: Messrs. J. S. R. Wedding, J. S. Glenn, H. P. Taylor, C. M. Barnett and C. E. Smith.

Marriage license since our last issue. E. W. Patterson, Hartford, age 25, to Cora Petty, Barrett's Ferry, age 26. N. F. Myers, Olton, age 23, to Pearl E. Stewart, Horse Branch, age 19. G. R. Risher, Fordsville, age 25, to Laura J. Aubrey, Fordsville, age 18. Amos A. Ransom, McHenry, age 24, to Lula Davis, Cromwell, age 18.

Kentucky has long been remarkable for the marksmanship of her inhabitants, and this was fully exemplified Wednesday, when Misses Gussie Woodward and Mary Bennett, accompanied the father of the latter, to his farm north of Hartford, for a little outing in shooting squirrels and birds. The result was that each proved good shots as evidenced by the game they brought back. One killed a squirrel the other a bird.

At the County Examination last Friday and Saturday there were twenty-two applicants. The examination questions were the easiest sent here in years. There were only two failures. Two received third-class certificates, fourteen received second-class certificates and three first-class. Miss Belle Shown obtained the highest grade, 89.2-11. T. J. Edge, Magan, and Myrtle Moreland, Hartford, were the other two who obtained first-class certificates.

County Court Notes. The following orders have been entered in the Ohio County Court at special terms of said court since the regular June term:

E. B. Finley qualified as deputy county clerk.

Mrs. Fannie Loyd qualified as administrator of J. H. Loyd, deceased.

T. J. Morton qualified as deputy county clerk.

R. B. Martin qualified as Notary Public for Ohio county.

Jas. B. Wright qualified as guardian for Ida Wright.

G. B. Likens qualified as guardian of Julia, Morgan, Eunice and Herbert James.

Jas. Southard was appointed as surveyor of a public road.

Everline Brown qualified as guardian of Claude, Mable, Ruth and George Gwinn.

C. Smith qualified as administrator of Henry Wall, deceased.

PERSONAL MENTION.

B. P. Terryman was in town Tuesday.

L. L. Stewart, Echols, was in town Friday.

E. L. Myers, Render, was in town Friday.

Iras Render, Matanzas, was in town Tuesday.

Alex Bell, Buford, was in town Tuesday.

A. R. Carson returned to Louisville Wednesday.

Dr. C. Crowder, Rosine was in town Wednesday.

H. D. Williams, Cincinnati, was in town Tuesday.

Herbert Sanders, McHenry, was in town Tuesday.

S. L. Fulkerson, Rockport, was in town Tuesday.

Hon. A. S. Bennett was a pleasant caller Monday.

H. E. Taylor, Beaver Dam, was in town Saturday.

Lem McHenry, Louisville, is in town this week.

J. C. Gentry, Cromwell, was in town Wednesday.

Tom Brown, Centertown, was in the city Tuesday.

J. W. Woodman, Livermore, was in town Tuesday.

U. G. Ragland visited relatives at Rosine this week.

J. O. McKinney, Beaver Dam, was in Hartford Sunday.

Byron C. Barnes, Beaver Dam, was in Hartford Sunday.

Sam Turner, Buford, was in town Monday and Tuesday.

L. F. Werner is visiting relatives in Indiana this week.

S. S. Acton, Sulphur Springs, was in the city Wednesday.

James B. Wedding, Sulphur Springs, was in town Wednesday.

R. J. Mason, Buford, called to see us while in town Friday.

Romney Acton, Sulphur Springs, was in the city Wednesday.

G. B. Combs, Hodgenville, is visiting relatives here this week.

J. A. King, Cromwell, called at this office while in town Saturday.

Mrs. Susan Miller, Beda, was a caller at this office Wednesday.

Walla Wedding, Louisville, is visiting his father, R. R. Wedding.

Dr. J. A. Sandbach, Friedland, made us a pleasant call Saturday.

A. H. Rowan went to Nuckles Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Miss Marie Hardwick is visiting relatives in Owensboro this week.

Ashby Edmunds, Hopkinsville, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

L. P. Downs, Livermore, was a pleasant caller at this office Saturday.

Misses Maude and Jennie Render, McHenry, are here this week visiting.

M. L. Heavrin will attend the Bar Association at Owensboro next week.

W. M. Coleman and G. P. Lane, Morgantown, were in town Monday.

Mrs. S. D. Miller visited relatives near Cromwell Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Hardwick, Greenville, will visit friends in Hartford next week.

Miss Susan Borah, Beda, visited relatives at Cromwell first of the week.

Henry Hardwick, Memphis, Tenn., is visiting his brother, W. G. Hardwick.

Mrs. F. L. Felix and daughter are visiting relatives in Louisville this week.

R. B. Martin and M. L. Heavrin made a business trip to Cromwell Tuesday.

S. T. Brown and daughter, Miss Norma, Centertown, was in the city Tuesday.

C. E. Morrison visited the family of F. M. Reynolds at Reynolds Station Sunday.

D. A. Young, Owensboro, and W. P. Cook, Beaver Dam, were in Hartford Tuesday.

Miss Gussie Woodward, Beaver Dam, is visiting the family of Rev. R. D. Bennett.

Misses Carrie Werner and Norma Miller visited friends at Reynolds Station Sunday.

Henry Hardwick, Memphis, is the guest of his brother, W. G. Hardwick, this week.

Mrs. W. P. Midkiff, Sulphur Springs, visited Judge Wedding's family yesterday.

County Superintendent DeWeese is in attendance at the K. E. A. at Lexington this week.

Miss Elizabeth Sanderfer returned from an extended stay in Logan county, last Saturday.

Little Anna Laura Rowan is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. L. J. Tanner, at Nuckles, this week.

Dr. Nestor Barnett and little daughter, Octavia, Caneyville, are the guests of relatives near town.

Bud Veiser returned Tuesday from Paducah, where he has been in the employ of the L. C. R. Co.

Col. C. M. Barnett returned to Louisville Wednesday after spending a few days with his family here.

Miss Mary Hayden, Lebanon, and Mrs. Sam Taylor, Beaver Dam, visited Mrs. Henry Field last Friday.

E. E. Crabtree returned Tuesday from a month's stay at Dawson

Spring, much improved in health.

Mrs. Amanda Barnett, near town, was the guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Barnett, Wednesday.

H. O. Schreter, photographer of the "Floating Studio," now located at Calhoun, is visiting at Cripple Creek, Colorado.

Sheriff Cal P. Keown went to Morgantown Tuesday on business pertaining to his office. He returned yesterday.

Mrs. J. C. Thomas and son left Monday for an extended visit to relatives at Elizabethtown and Gallatin, Tenn.

Misses Ethel Habit and Zana Barnett, Owensboro, will visit relatives and friends in Hartford and vicinity next week.

U. S. Corson returned from Dawson Springs Tuesday. He spent about ten days there and returned buoyant and hopeful.

Mrs. C. E. Morrison, who has been visiting at Fordsville and Reynolds for the past two weeks, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Rolph returned to her home in Louisville Monday. She has been visiting her mother during the past week.

Dr. A. F. Stanley returned from Lawrenceburg Friday. His wife will visit relatives several weeks before she returns.

Prof. F. E. Johnson, of Philpot, Daviess county, who formerly attended Hartford College, is visiting friends in Hartford this week.

S. S. Cox, Cleve Iler and Pearl Tweedell, and Misses Anna Collins, Kittle Collins and Etta Thomas spent Sunday at Sulphur Springs.

J. F. Vickers and Mrs. Heber Matthews returned Wednesday from a week's visit to relatives and friends at Sacramento and Calhoun.

Mrs. Wilson Bennett and daughter, Miss Mary, Red Hill, Daviess county, were the guests of J. L. Carson's family Wednesday and Thursday.

S. L. Stevens, candidate for the Republican nomination for Senator from the Seventh Senatorial district, called at this office Wednesday.

Dr. Richard Foster, who has been attending the Medical lectures in New York, will arrive to-day to be the guest of friends and relatives for a few days.

Misses Ida Park, Hartford, Mada and Ada Park, and Mertie Bishop, McHenry, and Messrs. Verna Bishop, Chester Loney, Lige Cooper and Melvin Shoulders, Centertown, spent Sunday at High View, near Cromwell.

A Very Sudden Death.

Miss Dee Hocker died very suddenly at her home, near Beaver Dam, Monday. She had been in normal health and performed her usual duties of life during the forenoon, but was taken suddenly ill in the afternoon and died about 6 o'clock p. m. She was the youngest daughter of the late Philip Hocker and Mrs. Manerva Hocker. Interment took place at the Goshen burying ground Tuesday afternoon.

Divorce Still Grinds.

There has been filed in the Ohio Circuit Court since the May term four petitions asking for divorce: Mary E. Storms vs. John B. Storms, Mabel McDaniel vs. Alvin McDaniel, Sane Balze vs. Sevanus Balze and Ross Cargal vs. Joseph Cargal.

A Serious Accident Averted.

Last Sunday morning, while out driving, the buggy of Miss Mary Taylor and Mrs. H. W. Rolph, collided with a vehicle driven by Mr. Frank Allen. The latter's horse became frightened and unmanageable and dashed into the buggy occupied by the ladies, throwing them out to the ground. They escaped, however, without any serious injury, but the fate of Mr. Allen was more serious. He was thrown to the ground with such violence that he had to be carried to town on a stretcher. After a few hours he was able to go to his home at Centertown.

Drowned in Barnett's Creek.

Last Saturday afternoon while bathing in Barnett's creek, near the "bluffs," Thad Hudson plunged into the water from a boat, and apparently swam off as though nothing was wrong, when suddenly he made a startling noise that attracted the attention of Will Hudson, who had come with him to the stream. Mr. Hudson rushed to his assistance, but was too late to save him, and he sank to rise no more. After about two hours search the body was rescued. He was conveyed to his home for interment Sunday.

A Cleveland Nuptial.

Quite an unique wedding was that of Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of Senator Marcus A. Hanna, to Joseph M. McCormick, a member of the editorial staff of the Chicago Tribune, and son of Hon. R. S. McCormick, U. S. Ambassador to Russia. The ceremony was elaborate and it took Bishop Leonard and three ministers to tie the knot.

A Cherished Hope Blighted.

Tuesday afternoon there filed into the County Clerk's office a young gentleman, Mr. Ransom, and young lady, Miss Davis, accompanied by an other lady and gentleman. The first named couple soon informed Clerk Ragland why they had

Special June-July Sales.

We are going to make special prices during these two months. If you need anything in the Dry Goods line, it will pay you to look at our goods. Our lines of ten-cent Lawns are sheer, beautiful and absolutely fast colors. Don't fail to see these, and also our Linen Batists, soft Persian Mulls, sheer White Organdies, Paris Muslins, Etc. Woolen Dress Goods—a nice line of brilliant lustrous, black and tan Voiles. Everything in up-to-date Dress Goods.

Our Underwear Line

Is brim full. Ladies' Taped Low-neck Vests, 5c. Splendid values at 10c. Nice line of Lisle Vests, 15c, 20c, 25c and 35c. Silk Vests, 75c and $1.00.

Lace Stripe Hosiery for Ladies, Misses and Children. Also a complete assortment of Gents' Underwear. Don't fail to look through this department when in need of Underwear, whether for yourself, your children or your husband.

Shoes and Slippers.

Everything that is new and up-to-date, you will find right here. A full line of Slippers for Ladies and Misses. Great values in Men's Shoes, both high and low cut. Don't fail to see them. When it comes to Shoes, we are right "at home." This line is a specialty with us. We've got THE stock and all the different lasts and sizes. And the prices are much below the values.

Latest Millinery.

This Department we keep fresh and full until the first of August, receiving new goods weekly. We can furnish you with the very latest things in this line. A full line of Misses' and Children's Hats—prices from 50c up. Trimmed Hats, from 50c up. Don't Fail to visit the Economy Store for Millinery bargains. The public credits us with being the leaders in this line.

ECONOMY DRY GOODS STORE. Mrs. Sara Collins Smith, Prop'r.

Spring Medicine

There is no other season when good medicine is so much needed as in the Spring.

The blood is impure, weak and impoverished—a condition indicated by pimples and other eruptions on the face and body, by deficient vitality, loss of appetite, lack of strength, and want of animation.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Make the blood pure, vigorous and rich, create appetite, give vitality, strength and animation, and cure all eruptions. Have the whole family begin to take them today.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla has been used in our family for some time, and always with good results. Last spring I was all run down and got a bottle of it, and as usual received great benefit." Miss BRULAH BOWEN, Stowe, Vt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

called, and he, in his very polite way took down his marriage license book and began to write a marriage license for couple No. 1, but upon further inquiry it developed that the young lady was only about eighteen years of age, the Clerk, in as kind and agreeable manner as he could, informed them that the consent of the young lady's parents would have to appear in writing before he could proceed further with the issue of the license.

They murmured a sigh of disappointment and withdrew with the remark that they would go home and procure the required consent of parents and return the next day.

They returned the next day and their hearts were made glad.

RIPANS Tablets Doctors find A good prescription For mankind.

The 5-cent packet is enough for usual occasions. The family bottle (50 cents) contains a supply for a year. All druggists sell them.

Soldiers Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Green River Association of ex-Federal Soldiers will be held at Centertown, July 4th. The general public and ex-Confederate soldiers are invited.

A Bad Breath

A bad breath means a bad stomach, a bad digestion, a bad liver. Ayer's Pills are liver pills. They cure constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, sick headache.

25c. All druggists.

Want your monotone or hoarse or beautiful voice? Then use BUCKINGHAM'S DYE for Whiskers.

25c. 50 CENTS. 1.00. E. P. JALL & CO., Boston, U.S.A.

STEVENS Single Barrel Gun

THE MOST POPULAR GUN MADE

This gun is fully up to the quality of our rifles, which for 38 years have been STANDARD.

It is made in 3 styles, and in 12, 16 and 20 gauge. Bored for NITRO POWDER and fully guaranteed.

No. 100 . . . $7.50
No. 110 . . . 8.50
No. 120 . . . 10.00

Send stamp for large catalogue illustrating complete line, brimful of valuable information to sportsmen.

J. STEVENS ARMS AND TOOL CO.

P. O. Box CHICOPEE FALLS, MASS.

My New Quarters

Are replete with bargains of all kinds. Come in and inspect my stock, which consists of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Trunks, Mattings, Carpets, Etc. The very lowest prices on every thing in my line.

I quote you a few prices: Good Bleach Cotton, 5c per yard. Good heavy Factory, 5c per yard. Best Calico 5c per yard.

Special reduced prices on Men's and Boys' ready-made Clothing. Men's Black Clay Worsted Suits—sizes 35 to 42—$3.00. Youth's Best Clay Worsted Suits—sizes 14 to 19—$2.50. Boys' Suits, from 6 to 15 years, $1.50. Men's Pants, 50c—this is a world's beater. You had better call at once as these goods are going rapidly. Men's Shoes, $1. Ladies' Shoes, $1.

Call and examine our stock. Don't have space to quote all our special prices.

Highest prices paid for Feathers, Ginseng, Yellow Root Etc.

Yours for trade,

SAM BACH,
Hartford, Ky.

Notice to Creditors.

All persons having claims against the estate of James R.

